Mayor Dave Hodgson opens Bedford Training Group's new Training Centre

The Brunel Centre, based in Brunel Road, Bedford was officially opened by Mayor Dave Hodgson at an event which attracted almost 100 people. At nearly 30,000sq ft, this is one of the largest training facilities in Bedfordshire. Alan Gildersleve, CEO of BTG explains "This is an exciting opportunity for us and our learners as we are now able to take many more Apprentices, Foundation Learners and the unemployed."

"We have brought together three separate training centres and this new centre is over twice the size of all three put together. Under one roof we now have Engineering, Construction, Motor Vehicle & Motorcycle Maintenance, Electrical & Electronics, Fabrication & Welding Sections with the ability to cope with many more learners than before, all with extra staff."

"We have programmes across our range for under 19's on the Foundation programmes where they can learn a skill and gain qualifications. We also now have increased flexibility for employed apprentices and can tailor a programme to suit most employers. There are opportunities for adults who are unemployed, where they can gain new skills to help them back into employment. We are able to start all eligible learners at anytime with two induction days every month."

Alan added "The coincidence of finding the building in Brunel Road prompted the naming of the centre as the Brunel Centre after one of this country's greatest ever Mechanical and Civil Engineers, Isambard Kingdom Brunel. This should be an inspiration to all who attend our centre!"

Council is to be sued over asbestos death

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A WIDOWER is suing the council after a coroner ruled that his wife died after coming into contact with asbestos during her teaching career at a school.

The inquest confirmed that Mrs Hazel MacDonald died from epithelioid mesothelioma – a cancer which is triggered by asbestos. The inquest followed her death on March 6, 2012.

Her widower Ian MacDonald, 69, of Topstreet Way, Harpenden, now claims that his wife Hazel contracted the terminal cancer from spores at Denbigh Infant School, on Denbigh Road, Luton, where she worked for 25 years.

After being diagnosed with the disease in 2010 it grew and spread until she died.

Asbestos was once used widely as an insulation material before the risks were known. The disease is caused by asbestos fibres being lodged in the lungs where they may sit for many years before the symptoms occur.

Mr MacDonald said: "I am taking legal action because the death of my wife could have and should have been avoided.

"Hazel never mentioned to me that she was aware that the school contained asbestos or that there was any work being done to remove asbestos.

"The only thing I do recall is that she was often annoyed at the levels of dust in the air in her classroom seen in the sunlight. But she put this down to a problem of working in an old and drafty school.

KILLER DUST: Ian MacDonald shows a picture of happier times with his wife before she died as a result of developing the disease mesothelioma which is caused by asbestos fibres getting into the lungs

"It is horrific to think now that it is that dust which may have been responsible for her death.

"I'm not carrying out this legal challenge for money. I know nothing can bring my wife back which is what I really want.

"My aim now is to get evidence that the school is now completely free of asbestos."

Malcolm Underhill, solicitor for Mr MacDonald, said: "The presence of asbestos in schools is a significant problem and puts many at risk of serious harm.

"During a House of Commons debate in 2012, the All-Party Parliamentary Group on Occupational Safety and Health emphasised that 'tens of thousands of school children and teachers' could be unaware of being exposed every day to asbestos.

"This latest tragedy highlights the risk of serious ill health that many adults and children face."

A spokesman for Luton Borough Council said: "We can confirm that we recently received a letter about this, and the council and the school are co-operating with an internal investigation which is now underway to establish the facts so we can respond to this claim.

"It would be inappropriate to comment further until this has concluded."

Busway faces
four month delay due to
'bad weather'

THE highly anticipated £82.9m Luton Dunstable Busway project has fallen behind schedule due to bad weather.

The project was originally due for completion on Friday April 19.

However Luton Borough Council has admitted that based on the latest schedule, the completion date is expected to be Wednesday June 26.

A council spokesman said: "The main cause of delays has been prolonged bad weather over the last year.

"The completion date includes a three month period for commissioning.

"This period will include, but is not limited to, testing journey time runs on the whole busway route to verify the timetable for busway services, driver training and testing of various emergency scenarios.

"This also includes the completion of cabling for CCTV passenger help points and real time passenger information displays for stops."

As well as bad weather, work on the busway was halted in October, when 'unknown utility apparatus' was found under a stretch of Church Street.

Contractors had to stop work until they had established whether the apparatus was live or could be removed.

However, the authority assured residents that the project was 'on track'.

Parking prices increase despite £1.4m profits

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutonsunday.co.uk

CHARGES for car parks have been increased by Luton Borough Council even though they have raked in almost £1.4m profit in the last two years.

Figures published by the Institute of Advanced Motorists show that the authority made £764,000 in profit from car parks in 2010/2011 and £624,000 in the following year.

Despite the profit figures a number of price rises have been implemented at car parks across the town this week.

The price of an hour's parking has gone up 10p in Crawley Road, Chapel Viaduct, South Road and Silver Street.

In addition, the cost for a Residents' Parking Permit has increased from £29 to £48 per year, while a Carers' Permit has increased from £23 to £38.

Elsewhere, the on-street parking around Leagrave railway station has increased by 33 per cent for an all day stay, which has disappointed local commuters.

Keith Mason, 33, from Lewsey Farm, Luton, said: "I've had enough now."

"Not only have I been hit with increases to train travel, but now the prices to park my car have gone up too!"

"The charge has increased from £3 to £4 a day. A pound increase doesn't sound like a lot, but over time it all adds up."

New charges for parking have also been introduced in Hitchin Road, Burr Street.

A spokesman from Luton Borough Council said: "Not all car parking charges are being increased - a significant number including those in Vicarage Street car park, Luton, are being reduced, some by as much as 23 per cent."

"Parking charges have been the subject of an extensive review. The council has also agreed that the prices for on-street charges and car park charges will be fixed for three years until they are reviewed in 2015."

"The changes were advertised on December 9 and have also been displayed on ticket machines in car parks."

"No feedback was received and so the charges were implemented on January 5."

"The charges for on-street parking around Leagrave Station have been increased by 33 per cent for all day stay - from £3 to £4 for all day peak parking - but this still represents excellent value for money for commuters," added the spokesman.

Follow the sign to make your 'delveries'

EAGLE-EYED readers have spotted the same spelling mistake on two signs on the same road.

One street sign at the bottom of Hazelbury Crescent, Luton reads 'Supermarket deliveries' (sic) and points towards a nearby Sainsbury's.

Unfortunately the error is repeated on another sign across the street on Dunstable Road.

One resident said: "I could not believe my eyes when I saw this."

"Surely the people who put up the sign would have noticed at the time that the spelling wasn't right."

"If they did not spot it first time, you think they would notice second time."

"Maybe it is just a sign of the times, and people aren't really too interested in spelling and grammar anymore."

A spokesman for Sainsbury's said: "The signs are part of the adopted highway network and are therefore the responsibility of Luton Borough Council."

We did ask the authority whether they were responsible for the signs, and whether they would be replaced, but they were unable to respond to us before our deadline.

POPULATION STUDY

A NEW study has revealed that white Britons make up less than half the population of Luton.

The figures compiled by the University of Manchester show that white Britons comprise 45 per cent of the population, Pakistanis make up 14 per cent and Bangladeshis seven per cent.

The study added that despite the town becoming more ethnically diverse, 81 per cent of residents in Luton said they identified as British.

The report said: "We already know from other sources that British identity is felt at least as strongly by those of minority ethnicity as those of white British ethnicity."

CASE TO BE HEARD AGAIN

A JURY has been discharged in the case of Sultan Khan, who is accused of the murder of a mother-of-three at her home in Luton.

Shobna Jethwam, 44, was found dead in her Butely Road home on September 9, 2011.

The case, which was opened to the jury on Tuesday, was stopped by Judge Andrew Bright QC on Thursday after legal arguments.

It is due to begin again before a new jury at St Albans crown court on Monday. Sultan Khan, 51, denies murder.

WINTER WEATHER WARNING

DRIVERS and pedestrians have been urged to take extra care as a spell of colder wintry weather is expected to move in.

Residents are also requested to look out for elderly and vulnerable family, friends and neighbours, as the Met Office has issued a yellow alert for widespread ice this morning.

The chance of snow continues through the day and next week. Cllr Dave Taylor said: "The council is well prepared for winter and during a cold spell our highways engineers monitor the situation around the clock and treat as many roads as possible when appropriate."

"But clearly it's not possible for us to treat every road so we concentrate resources on keeping the busier routes clear."

Drivers have also been advised to check tyre tread depths and pressures, anti-freeze levels, and the condition of wiper blades and batteries.

Anger at report over councillors' allowances

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE leader of the Liberal Democrats in Luton says he is 'astonished' that a report regarding members' allowances will not be discussed at a council meeting because the chief executive has not seen it.

The document, which was created by an independent panel of residents, is believed to suggest the members allowances should be reduced from £7,500 to £7,000.

This decrease would be of more significance to the leader of the council, the executive members and leaders of the opposition, as the base rate figure acts as a multiplier for further allowances.

The report was due to be discussed at a meeting of the full council on Thursday, January 15.

Here the council would have had the power to either accept or reject the recommendations, but the item has been mysteriously removed from the agenda.

Liberal Democrat leader Councillor David Franks told Luton on Sunday: "It's clear someone doesn't like what the report says but it is an independent report, written by an independent panel and they should be allowed to say whatever they like.

"What is the point of the council appointing an independent panel if someone is then going to censor what they say? This is a disgraceful situation, it's a kick in the teeth for the independent panel and I hope the panel members express their outrage in suitable terms."

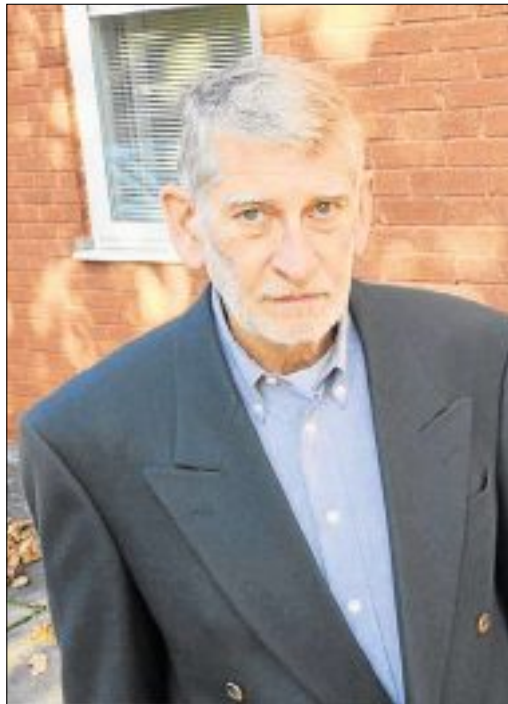

When told that the authority had delayed the presentation of the report as the chief exec hadn't yet seen it, Cllr Franks added: "I am astonished."

"There are lots of reports that the chief executive doesn't look at or sign off - especially now that he has three hats to wear with responsibilities for other councils."

"I'm pretty sure that this isn't the reason the report has been removed from the agenda, but whether we will ever find the real reason out, I don't know."

A spokesman for Luton Borough Council, said: "The chief executive had not seen the report and therefore withdrew it from the agenda."

"The report will be discussed at the next meeting of Full Council on Wednesday February 20."

ASTONISHED: Liberal Democrat leader David Franks said that the report should be discussed as planned, on January 15

MPs slam new benefits legislation

NEARLY 20,000 families in Luton will be worse off under the Government's controversial Benefit Up-rating legislation, say the town's two MPs - Kelvin Hopkins and Gavin Shuker.

MPs voted on the Bill, coined the 'strivers' tax', in Parliament earlier this week.

Under new legislation all working age benefits including tax credits and child benefit will be capped at a rise of one per cent per year, lower than the current inflation rate of 2.2 per cent.

The changes are part of the government's £15 billion package of welfare cuts which were announced in the Chancellor's Autumn Statement last year. George Osborne and David Cameron say that their welfare policies are targeting the work-shy and benefit 'scroungers', but it has been revealed that two thirds of those who will lose out are people in work.

Luton North MP Kelvin Hopkins said: "The cut is about the same in money terms as the cut in the top rate of tax for the rich, so that the poor are paying for the billionaires' extra cash."

"I completely reject the government's campaign to demonise the poor."

Gavin Shuker MP for Luton South added: "Kelvin and I voted to protect hard working families in Luton by opposing this Bill. Those affected will be the people who are already facing the rising cost of living, who get up early to go and work to provide for their children."

Xmas drink driving drops

THE number of motorists drink-driving over the Christmas period has dropped.

Police arrested 80 people for testing positive, refusing or failing a breath-test from December 1 to January 1, which is 11 lower compared with the same period in the previous year.

Inspector Colin Bonner from the Beds and Herts Roads Policing Unit said: "It's encouraging to see a decrease in the number of people putting themselves and others at risk by drinking and taking drugs before driving over Christmas."

"But while people continue to flout the law, my message to them is our work to combat this dangerous crime doesn't stop now the festivities are over."

Police and Crime Commissioner Olly Martins said: "This welcome fall in drink and drug-driving arrests underlines how socially unacceptable driving while impaired has become."

"Personally I have long believed there is no safe alcohol limit for driving other than zero and I am glad that this view too is increasingly taking root."

"I support the call for members of the public to report drink drivers."

"Drink driving is a killer and we have a responsibility to prevent it."

If you know a drink driver call 101 and tell Bedfordshire Police where and when they drink. If you know someone has been drinking and is about to drive, always dial 999.

New police appeal in Felix investigation

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

DETECTIVES are trying to track down a man who apparently fell into the river in Bedford town centre as part of the enquiries into the death of Luton man Felix Yorke.

Officers are investigating two reported incidents which may or may not be linked to Felix's death as they try to piece together his last movements.

Bedfordshire Police are also appealing for information as to why the 25-year-old would have been in Bedford at the time, and believe this may hold the key to the investigation.

Felix (pictured) was found in the River Great Ouse on New Year's Day near to the junction of The Embankment and Shaftesbury Avenue.

Police and the fire service had already searched the banks of the river where it runs under Prebend Street on Friday November 30, and again the next morning.

This was in response to a call from a member of the public who heard a splash from the Borough Hall side of the river at about 7.15pm and believed it was a person falling or jumping into the water. However, no trace of anyone could be found.

A week later, having seen a newspaper report about the river search, another witness contacted police to say that he was in the area of Victoria Road on the same evening at about 9pm, when he was approached by a man carrying wet clothes.

The man with the wet clothes asked the witness for a cigarette and explained he had fallen into the water and lost his rucksack along with a picture of his daughter. He's described as a white man, aged in his 30s, about 5ft 10ins-11ins tall, with brown hair.

Although he was carrying wet clothes, he was wearing dry clothes including black nylon calf length trousers and black Croc-style shoes.

Sgt Gavin Conder of the Missing

Person Unit said: "We know that Felix's phone was last active at 7pm on Friday November 30, and that it was in Bedford at that time. We also have a report of someone falling in the water at about the same time and also the report of a man with wet clothes about two hours later."

"These three things may not be linked in any way but we would like to trace the man with the wet clothes to see if he can clarify any of the information we already have."

In the meantime, officers are still awaiting the results of DNA tests which would confirm that the body found in the river on New Year's Day is that of Felix, who has been missing since November 30.

Anyone with information should call the Missing Person Unit on 01234 275317.

Jobs go as Jessops closes Luton store

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

PHOTOGRAPHIC store Jessops has become the first high profile retail casualty of the year after going into administration.

All 187 remaining outlets of the high street chain, including the store in The Mall, Luton, will now be closing with a total loss of around 1,370 nationwide.

It is believed that the Luton branch employs a number of staff in part-time and full-time positions, and these jobs will now be lost.

PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) were appointed administrators on Wednesday following a 'significant decline', and announced the store closures on Friday afternoon.

The store, which sells cameras and photography equipment, follows a raft of firms that went into administration in 2012 including Comet, Clinton Cards, JJB Sports and Game Group.

Jessops, which was founded in Leicester in 1935, had 192 stores in the UK.

On Friday Rob Hunt, joint administrator and partner at PwC, said: "It is apparent that we cannot continue to trade and as a result we have had to make the difficult decision to begin the closure of all 187 Jessops stores at the close of business today.

"Regrettably, this will result in around 1,370 job losses across the stores with further job losses likely, in due course, at the head office in Leicester.

"The stock will be collected over the coming days and returned to a central warehouse. It will be returned to suppliers if they are entitled to it. As a consequence of the closure, Jessops is no longer able to accept returned product from customers.

"This is a sad day for Jessops and its employees. We are very grateful for the support we have received and we will ensure that employees are paid as they assist the closure."

PwC said although Jessops had a strong reputation, its core market had declined significantly.

Jessops will not honour customer vouchers. However, Tesco will give a full refund to any customer who had recently exchanged Clubcard vouchers for tokens to spend with Jessops.

Village left in the dark after cars strike pylon

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

RESIDENTS are demanding action at an accident hotspot where car crashes are cutting power supplies to their village.

According to families at least four cars have ended up in a ditch and hit an electricity pylon along Sundon Road, Houghton Regis, in the last month alone.

But every time the supply pole is struck, the whole of Chalton is left without power.

The latest incident, which happened at 1.30am on Thursday, left the village in the dark for nine hours.

One resident, who asked not to be named, said: "There have been accidents over the last couple of years but over the last month it has become a real hotspot."

"Of course we are very worried about the wellbeing of the motorists that are coming off the road and it is a concern that one day someone might be very badly hurt or even killed."

"At the same time, the residents in the village are regularly being left without light and heating, which is an inconvenience."

"After the latest car ended up in the ditch on Thursday we were left without power from 1.30am

CRASH: The latest car to hit the supply pole left the entire village of Chalton without power for around nine hours on Thursday morning to 10.30am.

"It doesn't sound bad as it is overnight, but it means that people went to work without a shower or a hot breakfast – and with the cold weather making a return, it is a real worry."

"I don't know what can be done, but there needs to be some action taken."

Central Bedfordshire Councillor, Budge Wells, said: "We are aware that there have been a number of loss-of-control crashes at this bend."

"We have already placed verge marker posts around the bend."

"The chevrons were damaged before Christmas and due to a large gas main in the immediate area, Transco said that they had to be present when we were doing the digging."

"This delayed our work but the chevrons have now been replaced."

"We are also aware that the electricity company are planning to move the supply pole away from the bend."

Debit card charge worry

SIR – I was somewhat alarmed to read the article “Poor face new £12 council tax charge.”

I was very worried as I pay my council tax by direct debit and had not budgeted a £12 charge into my finances to do so.

Upon checking with Luton Borough Council it was explained to me that the £12 charge is only applicable to persons who keep and continue to default of their direct debit payment to the council, very much like a bank would charge for the return of ‘insufficient funds cheques.’

I do think that Mr Martin Pantling should have got his facts correct before urging people to cancel their direct debit.

This could have been done very easily and quickly if he had spoken first to Luton Borough Council.

Mrs C Tansley,
Stockwood Crescent, Luton

Tell the truth about town

SIR – So, according to the Halifax survey, Luton is the pits when it comes to quality of life.

I wonder how MP Gavin Shaker manages to reconcile that with his recent claim that ‘people want to come here to live’.

Does he think people actually seek out places where they can expect a low quality of life?

I’ve lived in Luton all my life and watched the place deteriorate.

It really accelerated about 40 years ago when it began to expand faster than the housing and infrastructure could cope.

Cultural pressures also began to rear up and Luton morphed from being one community into several.

So to put it simply: Luton’s problems are about overcrowding, and the place is already too big for its own good.

Only a cretin can fail to see that both these policies will lead Luton growing even bigger, with more people coming here causing more overcrowding - which in turn will lead to a further reduction in quality of life.

Instead of spouting misleading propaganda about how wonderful it is here our masters should be telling it like it really is.

If it’s still deemed that the country needs more houses the answer is to build more new towns.

Ron Turvey,
Stanmore Crescent, Luton

social care cut or frozen since 2010, say they are fearful of the effect on vulnerable people in their areas.

When the British Red Cross steps in to offer simple, practical and emotional support, our staff and volunteers save taxpayers up to £10,000 for each person they help.

By stopping unnecessary hospital or care home admissions, or preventing minor health problems escalating, these services not only make a huge difference to people’s wellbeing, but also offer councils and the NHS the chance to save millions of pounds.

In the face of unprecedented pressures on budgets, ring-fenced funds must be allocated for preventative care services to ensure help is available to those who need it most. The alternative doesn’t bear thinking about.

Michael Adamson,
Managing Director, British Red Cross

Get involved in community

SIR – Are you one of the many in Luton who have made New Year’s Resolutions to try something new, meet new people or get involved in something worthwhile - but so far haven’t got round to doing anything about it?

Then here is the perfect opportunity for you. Why not volunteer your time and talents to making others happy?

A small community entertainment group, based in Luton, is looking for new members of all ages.

Musicians, magicians, singers, dancers and actors (with talent great or small) are all welcome. No previous experience is necessary. We meet each week and our aim is to devise entertainment for others.

We perform at a variety of venues and for various occasions.

Cuts will affect the elderly

SIR – Fears about the impact on the elderly as health and social care cuts are increasing and British Red Cross research shows Professor Ashton is not alone in his concern. So let’s put it bluntly: cuts and underfunding to preventative social care are leaving vulnerable people at risk.

According to a ComRes poll we commissioned, more than three quarters of local councillors, who have seen funding for

TV programme makes Splash

SIR – There has been a mixed response to the new ITV show Splash, which is filmed in our very own Inspire swimming pool.

I think the programme, though a little cheesy, is great Saturday night viewing, and will hopefully get a whole new generation into diving. The fact that it is filmed in Luton is a bonus. Isn’t it time that we had some good publicity and show off our facilities to the rest of the country?

We need answers to our questions

I MADE the point last week that the Ministry of Justice press office was not being very helpful.

It is perhaps time to make a wider point that press offices generally are becoming less helpful. I say this with some trepidation as there is a risk of upsetting all press officers, including the present Mrs Lowe. And there are obviously some that are better than others and some organisations that are run better than others.

But there are two issues coming through: one a lack of alacrity; the other a certain disdain for the press. Before anyone yells it's just you, these issues are not confined to this newspaper, this publisher or this area.

As we move towards daily online newspapers, the need for comment on a story in hours, not days becomes imperative.

Local hospitals, councils, etc. would hate it if they were not allowed to comment on a story affecting them.

They may even go to the Press Complaints Commission to complain. But newspapers have deadlines, which are becoming shorter and shorter, a fact that seems to go unnoticed by some of these press offices.

There is also a view that it doesn't matter anyway, almost as if public scrutiny was a thing of the past.

No-one cares what councillors do these days, which is mainly nothing, seems to be the belief. Yet stories on local government and its impact on the local community, still gets massive comment, both online and in the letters' pages. The people care, even if the administrations don't appear to.

News organisations still need to act as the 'fourth estate', scrutinising and criticising – or even praising – what local government and the local organs of national government get up to.

So it might become a more common response that the subject of the story had declined to comment by the time we went to press. That'll cheer them up.

A TORY MP said this week that there should be a referendum on Europe because we do not know what people think and need to find out.

We do not know what people think of benefit cuts and perhaps should have a referendum on that.

We are told that benefits have to fall because working people's wages are falling, as if two wrongs make a right. Of course the rich have had cuts as well – in the taxes they pay.

Perhaps a referendum would be a good idea on where the people think the cuts should fall. After all, we are all in it together, aren't we?

TWO THIRDS of Luton people who responded to a survey said they want to see the expansion of Luton Airport.

If you include me that's two thirds plus one. Air travel has been increasing, is increasing and will continue to increase. So Luton should take advantage of that.

There are excellent communications by road and rail to get passengers to and from the airport. Planes are much safer and much quieter than they used to be, so the environmental objections are less important.

And the expansion would double the capacity and create more than 5,000 jobs, all within the present site.

What's not to like? Let's hope that Luton Borough Council planning committee thinks the same.

Change plans with new travel scheme

WOULD you car share, cycle or walk to work?

Maybe it's not something that you have considered, but Travel Luton plan to change that.

More than 3,500 people have already signed up to the new scheme, which aims to get residents using active and more sustainable methods of getting around.

A team of travel advisers, or the 'purple people' as they are popularly becoming known, are visiting residents, businesses, schools and community groups in Luton to offer ideas and encouragement for people to change their travel choices.

The advisers are able to help you find ways of travelling that can save you money and time; help you get or stay fit, or simply find more enjoyable and less stressful ways of getting from A to B.

Throughout the summer of 2012 the team knocked on doors and visited community events to encourage both residents and workers to walk, cycle, take public transport or car share when making local trips.

Nicola Scott, a Travel Luton team leader, said: "We have been amazed by the response Travel Luton is a new initiative promoting sustainable and active ways of getting to work, school and college.

LAUREN ARCHELL discovers how and why the scheme plans to change the travel habits of people in the town we have had.

"More than 3,500 people have already signed up to the scheme, and in addition most participants have also taken up a challenge to try a sustainable method of travelling.

"These have varied from modest targets, such as walking to the local shop instead of using a car, to bigger changes such as using the bus to get to work every day.

"We would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who has taken part so far."

Some may be worried about how to begin making a big change to their routine but Nicola said that the advisers were there to help answer any questions.

She said: "We can help to put in place a support package offering guidance and assistance, and can provide maps with safe cycle routes, bus timetables and information on local walks to help make the transition smoother."

If you're not keen to give up the warmth of your own car just yet, the team may be able to help you become a more fuel-efficient driver, which would reduce the amount spent on petrol and diesel.

In November, residents were offered the chance to take part in driver training, with lessons run on behalf of the Energy Saving Trust.

SUPPORT: The 'purple people' get ready to hit the town centre, and (inset) Simon Hall, Smarter Driver winner provided an hour's free tuition. Residents who took part drove an on-road circuit in Luton twice, logging miles-per-gallon to see how much improvement they made.

Simon Hall was the most improved driver, making a 28 per cent reduction in fuel consumption.

This would equate to annual savings of £690 in fuel costs and a reduction of 1,267 kg in carbon dioxide.

The team has also been engaging with businesses in Luton to encourage staff to think about alternative ways of getting to work instead of driving alone.

So far Luton and Dunstable Hospital, Luton Borough Council, Basepoint Business Centre Butterfield, Luton Community Housing, In Training, London Luton Airport and Vauxhall have all had visits from the advisers.

Members will receive regular information updates, and can take part in promotions, competitions or request personal travel advice.

A TAKEAWAY shop owner has been fined more than £3,000 after live cockroaches and bugs were found on the premises.

Mohammed Zaheer, owner of Halal Fried Chicken and Dawaat in Dunstable Road, Luton pleaded guilty to four food hygiene offences and a health and safety offence at Luton Magistrates' Court on Monday.

Environmental health officers were carrying out a routine inspection when they discovered the insects in the kitchen and servery area.

A further inspection revealed that more bugs including adult and nymph cockroaches were in the premises.

Around 15 dead bugs were found in a puddle of grease on top of a pressure fryer.

Officers found the shop was filthy with grease and food debris including cooked rice, vegetable matter and dried meat discovered on the floor under equipment.

There was also a lack of hand washing facilities and dangerous electrical equipment.

Zaheer decided to close the premises and co-operated fully with officers before re-opening it

BREACH: Mohammed Zaheer, owner of Halal Fried Chicken and Dawaat pleaded guilty to four hygiene offences at Luton Magistrate's Court in December 2011.

At the time of the offences, the business was a takeaway selling fried chicken, kebabs, curries, rice and pizza, but has subsequently stopped trading.

Zaheer was fined £3350, and was also ordered to pay the council's costs of £1,411, and a victim surcharge of £15.

A second shop owner was also fined more than £4,000 after council officers found that his premises were also in breach of health and safety regulations.

Shabir Ahmed, owner of Al Badar, also in Dunstable Road, Luton, pleaded guilty to the offences after officers found uncovered food stored under raw meat and fish.

Cllr Mohammed Ashraf said: "Keeping a kitchen clean, safe and pest-free is vital for food safety."

"The council takes the protection of public health very seriously and will not tolerate businesses that put the health of local residents at risk."

Police: “Burglars are not welcome”

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A POLICE scheme which proactively targets burglars has been branded a success, after almost 70 arrests were made.

Operation Peak, which began in October, has so far also seen more than 600 suspects stopped and nearly 550 of those searched.

Of the 69 arrests made, 21 of these were related to burglary.

The scheme, which involves a dedicated team made up of members from the Local Policing Team, Crime Reduction, ANPR units and Tasking Units, has targeted known offenders in Luton, as well as identifying key hotspot areas where burglary still remains an issue.

Some of those arrested have included prolific offenders from Bedfordshire while others have been offenders from outside of the county who have travelled into the area.

Speaking about the continued success of Operation Peak, Local Policing Chief Inspector Rob McCaffray said: “I’ve been delighted by the impact that our officers have had in the local community and we are already enjoying some positive outcomes from our pro-active approach.

“We’ve said that we want

TARGET: Rob McCaffray wants to send a clear message to offenders

Bedfordshire to become a hostile environment in which to commit burglaries and I think that message has been out there from the start.

“We’ve said from day one that we intend to disrupt burglars and other offenders within our towns and the signs are that Operation Peak is doing just that.

“We’ve adopted a ‘Firm, Fair and Friendly’ approach to dealing with known offenders and other suspects and this will continue.

“The message from Bedfordshire Police is simple – burglars are not welcome.” In the coming months, suspects can expect to see an increase in daily interaction with police officers

Known offenders and suspects found to be in particular hotspot areas can also expect an increase in the use of stop-and-search as Bedfordshire Police aims to send out a clear message that burglary will not be tolerated.

Local policing teams will also be distributing prevention advice in areas identified as burglary hotspots as well as executing a number of search warrants.

• Police are searching for burglars who stole a substantial amount of Indian gold from a property in Dunstable.

The offence took place between 11am and 6.30pm on Sunday, January 6 in Badgers Gate when the intruders broke into a garage next to the house and removed a ladder which they used to disable the house alarm.

They then smashed a window at the rear of the property and then conducted a messy search of the house stealing a large amount of Indian gold jewellery, cash and bank cards.

Anyone with information should call Bedfordshire Police on 101.

Watching telly is black and white for 76 homes

ALMOST 80 people in Luton are still watching black and white televisions - nearly 46 years after colour transmissions began.

Figures released show that the town comes second only to London, for the highest number of black and white licences in use in the south east, at 76.

Victoria Sykes, spokeswoman for TV Licensing, said: "It's remarkable that with the digital switchover complete and 41 per cent of UK households owning HDTVs, that more than 13,000 households in the UK still watch programmes on a black and white telly."

Festive raiders leave victim feeling the cold

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN was left with no hot water or heating system after burglars targeted his property.

The 23-year-old occupant of a flat in Townsley Close, Luton, returned home on Friday, December 28 to find someone had taken the gas meter from the premises.

On Tuesday, December 4, at the same address, thieves had also managed to gain entry and remove copper piping from the radiators. Investigating officer, Detective Constable Simon Day, is keen to trace members of the public who may have seen anyone in the area last month with piping or acting suspiciously.

DC Day said: "This has been extremely inconvenient for the resident who had to spend the festive period with no heating or hot water.

"As this type of heating equipment would have been heavy and difficult to handle it is possible the offenders used a vehicle to remove it from the scene. I would urge anyone who saw anything suspicious or an unknown vehicle in the area in December to come forward and assist with this investigation."

Boost your business in Retail Factor comp

THE Mall Luton has teamed up with Luton on Sunday to announce the launch of its annual Retail Factor competition.

The call has been issued for budding retail entrepreneurs to take advantage of the chance to put their business in a real-life shopping environment.

The Retail Factor competition provides ambitious local businesses with the opportunity to become 'real life' retailers and trade from an established environment rent free.

Those who produce the best retail sales are also in with a chance to enjoy prizes including an exclusive place on a prestigious week-long retail business course and a cash contribution towards stock.

This unique competition is open to all retail businesses throughout Luton and gives potential entrants a chance to realise their business dream.

Those who wish to demonstrate that they could be the future Philip Green should submit an application form online or in The Mall Luton by February 24.

Entries will be judged on the strength of the business idea, consumer understanding, sales and marketing strategy and trading approach. Businesses that make the shortlist will be notified and given free use of a retail merchandising unit in The Mall Luton for two weeks.

A panel of expert judges will then announce the trader or business with the most commercial potential.

This business will be entered into a wider competition against other businesses trading in Mall shopping centres across the country.

The overall winning trader will be presented with additional free space in The Mall, a place on the Oxford Summer School Academy

Course and £500 towards stock. Mark Broadhead, General Manager of The Mall Luton, said: "We are very excited to be providing local people with a stepping stone to take their business to the next level."

Jackie Bevan, Commercial Manager at Luton On Sunday, said: "Luton on Sunday is proud to partner the Retail Factor again for 2013 and will be publishing updates each Sunday so ensure you get your copy or visit www.luton-dunstable.co.uk for our digital edition."

ARIES

21 MARCH - 20 APRIL

LIFE: A lucky break in the first week of 2013 gets you off to a great start and financial decisions in the spring will have lasting importance. Plans go well in the first half of the year and you can look forward to an enjoyable summer with your family.

TROUBLE: A career change may be forced on you and aspects to Mars indicate you'll need lots of patience to deal with some recurring problems. Be sure to keep a close eye on any shared finances.

LIBRA

23 SEPTEMBER - 22 OCTOBER

LIFE: A contact from abroad may affect your life during the first six months of 2013 and you should look out for fresh opportunities. On the work front, a new agreement in May will lead to something big.

TROUBLE: You won't always be certain where you stand in a personal matter and a colleague or relative's behaviour will need sorting in the spring. Also, make sure you stay on top of financial affairs.

TAURUS

21 APRIL - 21 MAY

LIFE: Earnings are likely to shoot up early in the new year. Certain chickens may also come home to roost in a relationship or your personal life. But a friendship will blossom — and some schemes you come up with will be a big success.

TROUBLE: Aspects to Venus suggest you'll be unsure how to act in early 2013 and you won't always get your own way over the spring. In particular pay close attention to important relationships.

SCORPIO

23 OCTOBER - 21 NOVEMBER

LIFE: Try not to be too sensitive about any personal affairs during April's lunar eclipse — especially as you'll have a lot of luck in the year ahead and a chance to turn over a new leaf in a close relationship TROUBLE: A predicament at work may demand a total rethink in late May, while aspects to Pluto mean a refusal could set you back in June. In particular, keep a close eye on your personal life.

GEMINI

22 MAY - 21 JUNE

LIFE: Despite an indecisive start to 2013, this could be a brilliant year for your career. You'll find yourself turning a dull or tedious job into something special, and you'll also have a chance to broaden your horizons and clear up a mystery.

TROUBLE: Don't pursue ambitions in March, avoid financial deals and discussions in July and don't let a friend or colleague bully you into doing what they want. Above all, stay focused on your daily schedule.

SAGITTARIUS

22 NOVEMBER - 20 DECEMBER

LIFE: A revelation in April or May will affect your plans, a new job is on the cards and events at home will solve a long term difficulty. A new or improved relationship will also cheer you up no end.

TROUBLE: Jupiter's influence suggests some complications for a friendship in February or March and a loved one will be obstinate in the spring. It's sure to be a year of secrets and surprises.

CANCER

22 JUNE - 22 JULY

LIFE: Eclipses in the spring are an indication of love affairs and friendship, while other planetary aspects suggest a romance could be on the cards in the summer. July and much of the rest of 2013 will be very lucky for you too.

TROUBLE: Certain people will try to force their views on you. There could be tension with a boss, and you should watch your weight — but being aware of your hidden talents is the key next year.

CAPRICORN

21 DECEMBER - 19 JANUARY

LIFE: It looks as though you'll have your pick of plum jobs and romance could blossom in the spring — while aspects to Saturn indicate that your determination to achieve a hope or wish will produce great results.

TROUBLE: Saturn suggests you'll be banging your head against a brick wall at times next year and a set up at home will need to change. Your friends and social life are key areas to focus on.

23 JULY - 22 AUGUST

LIFE: Friends brighten up the first half of 2013 and developments at home or in your career will benefit from urgent attention. In addition, you'll be invincible in June, and the summer holds a nice surprise.

TROUBLE: Be ready for problems as the Sun squares Pluto on 1 April, and get all the facts before agreeing to a financial commitment in late May. But the main thing to focus on is your family life.

AQUARIUS

20 JANUARY - 19 FEBRUARY

LIFE: 2013 will be excellent for romance and expressing your creative side but, most of all, it's the year to put as much energy as you can into furthering your career. Expect fantastic news at home too.

TROUBLE: Last minute obstacles crop up in early January, money will need careful handling come March and you'll have hiccups with schemes throughout the year. Keep aims and aspirations clearly defined.

VIRGO

23 AUG - 22 SEPTEMBER

LIFE: Perhaps you're already riding a wave of success. If not, it's the perfect year to aim high and give an ambition your best shot. Long term projects, close relationships and friendships will forge ahead as well.

TROUBLE: Mercury's influence indicates issues with someone close may cause stress between February and March — and in the summer. But people around you should be your main concern.

PISCES

20 FEBRUARY - 20 MARCH

LIFE: You need to be particularly patient around May's solar eclipse. You'll also feel an urge to do up or extend your home. Don't miss an opportunity to take your life off in an entirely new direction too.

TROUBLE: Putting your foot in it is no laughing matter in late February/early March, and it's best to avoid any big financial commitments. Travel or foreign connections will come into play next year too.

Guvnors to give a knightly show of humour and hits

MUSIC

THE BARRON KNIGHTS Harpenden Public Halls

Thursday, February 7, 7.30pm

BACK by popular demand, The Barron Knights will be making a return to Harpenden.

The four-piece band have been described as the most entertaining group to come out of the 60s and 70s thanks to their musicianship, harmonies, and humour.

Although the Barron Knights undoubtedly had their own style and produced regular 'beat group' recordings in their own right, it was their production of humorous parodies that brought them the greatest success.

In fact, their catalogue of recordings – although large – does not reflect their success as stage entertainers.

By adapting their act to each new wave of emerging performers they were able to survive longer than their more conventional contemporaries, and even today can still be regularly found performing.

Branded 'The Guvnors' by their peers, this show will feature all of their hits, as well as songs that document the band members' lives.

Alongside the favourites, the audience can expect classical guitar pieces, the William Tell Overture, flamenco tune Malaguena and their famous three-part harmony version of Paul McCartney's Blackbird.

Any Luton Town fans in attendance might want to make a special request – the Barron Knights recorded club song, Hatters, Hatters with the squad in the 1970s.

Always game for a laugh, the band will be sure to squeeze in a few anecdotes in between the music, which are sure to give the audience a good giggle.

Supremely talented and a show-biz phenomenon, this performance has previously been described as the best tonic the NHS could give the population.

Quite simply, this is a show not to be missed and is expected to sell out very quickly.

Tickets for The Barron Knights cost £17 for adults and £15 for concessions.

Book your seat by calling the Harpenden Public Halls box office on 01582 767525.

Alternatively visit www.harpendenpublichalls.co.uk, where full listings are available.

Action! Sit back and enjoy some big screen magic

FILM SEASON

GAMBIT AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS (PG)

The Alban Arena

Various dates and times throughout January

THERE'S a little film comedy to lift the January blues at The Alban Arena with Gambit (PG).

An art curator (Colin Firth) decides to seek revenge on his abusive boss and impossibly wealthy widower (Alan Rickman) by conning him into buying a fake Monet.

But his plan requires the help of the beautiful but extremely eccentric and unpredictable Texas rodeo queen (Cameron Diaz).

As the risky plan begins to unravel Firth finds he is falling in love with the rodeo queen, ensuing further complications.

Directed by Michael Hoffman, the light-hearted comedy will be shown on Tuesday, January 15 at 7.30pm and Thursday, January 17 at 7.30pm.

If you are after something more serious and gripping, last year's British film adaptation of Charles Dickens's novel Great Expectations is also due to be shown at the Alban Arena.

The film tells the story of a humble orphan who suddenly becomes a gentleman with the help of an unknown benefactor. However, his sudden fortune drags him into a queasy awareness of the corrupting power of wealth.

With a jam-packed cast starring Helena Bonham Carter, Ralph Fiennes and Robbie Coltrane, this adaptation portrays the classic as it has never been seen before.

Directed by Mike Newell, Great Expectations will be shown on Wednesday, January 16 at 1.30pm and 7.30pm.

Tickets for the matinees are £5, while evenings are £7 or £5 concessions.

Book your seat by calling the box office on 01727 844488.

For all the latest information regarding the film season, visit www.alban-arena.co.uk, or to request a showing of your favourite movie go to www.facebook.com/albanarena

No wonder you love paper

Did you know that forests in Europe, which provide wood for making into paper and many other widely used materials, are 30% larger than in 1950? In fact they're increasing by 1.5 million football pitches every year.*

If you love reading your favourite newspaper, isn't it good to know that it's made from natural and renewable wood.

Two Sides is an industry initiative to promote the responsible use of print and paper as a uniquely powerful and natural communications medium.

REN WILL I BE FAMOUS?

Renault has shown just how much can be achieved with its Renaultsport brand over recent years.

The marque has risen from performance car mediocrity to offer a whole series of the most respected and sought-after hot hatchbacks around.

The Clio Renaultsport 200 continues that tradition with the same thorough approach to extracting optimum handling and performance that has yielded success for Renaultsport products past.

More power is rarely a bad place for a hot hatchback to start. With the Clio Renaultsport 200, the increase is only 3bhp over the Renaultsport 197 but it's a clear indicator for the market that progress has been made, even if more significant changes lie elsewhere.

The 2.0-litre 16-valve petrol engine does without the assistance of a turbocharger, which is becoming more unusual amongst this fast Clio's rivals. It means that the car produces its best higher in the rev range. Maximum torque of 215Nm is available at 5,400rpm (100rpm lower than the Renaultsport 197 version) and peak power is generated at a heady 7,100rpm. The 0-60mph sprint is covered in 6.9s, the same as a Golf GTI and the top speed is 141mph.

Hot hatchbacks need a soupcon of aggression in their styling to let the world know what they're all about and the Renaultsport 200 has a bigger snarl on than most. It inherits the basic look for the Clio supermini following its 2009 facelift, but big intakes, lower bumpers and side sills underline the fact that this isn't your everyday shopping hatch.

The front end is defined by the dramatically contoured bumper that looks as though someone has taken a wedge out of it with a giant axe. At the back, a sharply contoured splitter frames the twin exhaust pipes.

The Clio Renaultsport 200 certainly looks the part and it has the credentials to deliver the goods on the road too.

The high revving normally-aspirated engine does fall down when it comes to economy and emissions but hot hatch fans will be inclined to shoulder those costs in exchange for this Clio's rare talents.

Luton leave it late in thriller

RUGBY UNION ROUND-UP

BY TIM BARTLETT
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

TWO late tries helped Luton secure an 19-18 win on the road to Old Haberdashers in a closely-fought contest in terrible conditions yesterday afternoon.

The home side started well and drew first blood with a well-worked try to take a 5-0 lead before Rik Hobbs replied with three penalties to give Luton a 9-5 half-time lead.

The visitors then shipped 13 second-half points, conceding a converted try and two penalties to go 18-9 behind with a quarter of an hour left to play.

Luton saved the best until last as they produced a grandstand finish to take the points.

Winger, Tesh Edwards ran in a try from the wing with 12 minutes on the clock, though Hobbs failed to add the conversion as he struggled to keep his footing with the wide areas resembling something of a mud bath in the second half.

Luton continued to apply pressure in the Old Haberdashers' 22 and were rewarded with three minutes on the clock in what was to be the move of the game.

Twelve phases of recycled forward play resulted in Tom Wilmore going over in the corner to put Luton 19-18 in front, and secure the points.

Dunstablians prop Simon George remains philosophical following their 23-20 defeat at home to Huntingdon yesterday.

The top of the table clash offered Dees the chance to leapfrog the visitors and go top, but Dunstablians will be left counting the cost of a middle phase of the game that cost them the game.

"We started and finished the game well, but it was the twenty minutes after half time that let us down," said George. "They're a top team. If you give them a sniff they're in. They had three or four visits to our 22 and scored from every one."

Two tries from Duncan Holmes which were converted by Joe Murphy, who added two penalties, were not enough.

"In the last five minutes we had around two uninterrupted phases of play, with Joe [Murphy] being held up half a foot short of the line. That's how close it was," said George.

"I couldn't be more proud of the boys, it was a great team performance, an unbelievable effort."

Stockwood Park travelled to high-flying Rugby St Andrews yesterday afternoon hoping to build on last week's victory against Bedford Queens, but found their hosts too hot to handle as they were beaten 49-14.

"We had to make too many late changes, and it showed, we struggled to get organised," said Stockwood Park President John Humphries.

Club captain Michael Powell, Hooker Darren May and number eight Ben Griffin were unavailable for selection, ripping a hole in the Stockwood Park pack, and giving the travelling Luton side an uphill battle from the off against a well-drilled Rugby St Andrews forward unit.

Stockwood Park trailed 32-0 at half time and struggled to impose themselves in the first half. In the second, Stockwood Park rallied and showed some periods of cohesion, scoring two converted tries through James Peddar. The second was the try of the game.

Jason Carr kicked both conversions to bring the score back to 32-14.

Stockwood Park then enjoyed a period in the game that, had they made the most of their possession, could have made things interesting in the closing period of the game, but it was not to be.

"We didn't maintain that period of dominance and made some real howlers in defence," said Humphries. "It became quite one sided, not a great performance, we're disappointed, but we move on."

CASUALTY: Richard Wilmot injured his hand while AFC see Christie join rivals

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

BY JONATHAN PAXTON
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

BARTON Rovers fell back down to earth with a 5-0 hammering away at high flying Rugby Town in the Evo Stik League Central Division.

After a fine 3-0 away at Chertsey Town in midweek, Dan Kennoy's team were taught a lesson by promotion-chasing Rugby who ran into a three-goal half-time lead and added two more goals just after the break.

Barton showed no fight or passion in an appalling performance and things got even worse when goalkeeper Richard Wilmot was taken off with a suspected broken hand.

With no reserve goalkeeper available, captain Tommy Hull had to take over between the sticks for the closing stages and at least managed to prevent any more goals being shipped.

Kennoy is now left with a headache and needs to find a replacement goalkeeper ahead of Tuesday night's visit of Ashford Town to Sharpshoe Road.

AFC Dunstable were left rueing missed chances as they went down 1-0 at Creasey Park against mid-table Harefield United in the South Midlands League Premier Division.

As early as the second minute, AFC had a glorious chance when they were awarded a penalty but the normally reliant Gareth Harnaman blasted the kick high over the bar.

It was an injury to Harnaman that led to the visitors taking the lead, the forward receiving treatment off the pitch and leaving AFC a man down when a long ball from the Harefield keeper was flicked on to set up the only goal.

AFC had a number of chances to equalise in the second half but manager Alex Butler was furious with his wasteful forwards. "We could have carried on playing all night and still not scored," he said.

It proved to be BJ Christie's last game for the club with top of the table Dunstable Town signing the forward from their local rivals on Saturday evening.

"It was such a good financial offer that it wasn't fair of us to stand in his way," said Butler. "Dunstable Town have got plenty of money and we simply can't compete with them."

Dunstable also asked Luton about signing Adam Watkins.

In Division One, Crawley Green's promotion push took another set back as they lost their second consecutive home match, 2-1 against Chesham United Reserves.

Chesham took the lead on the hour when Will Orchard drove the ball past Dean Bull but Crawley were back on term ten minutes later, Chris Gibson linking up with Adam Reid and finishing with a devastating strike. Despite Crawley pressure, Chesham secured the three points on 76 minutes when Sam Barker clipped home a free kick from the edge of the box.

Hatters labour to a FA Trophy victory

FOOTBALL

FA Trophy third round
Luton Town 2
Skelmersdale 0

BY TOM SHARP
sport@londonmedia.co.uk

SKELMERSDALE manager Tommy Lawson promised his side would "entertain" the masses before the game but it was anything but entertaining as Luton laboured over the line courtesy of late goals from substitutes Adam Watkins and Andre Gray to clinch their place in the last eight of the FA Trophy.

Watkins' 84th minute effort sent the Hatters on their way and Gray's injury-time second was enough to overcome Skem and in the process spared the Hatters' blushes and avoided the prospect of an unwanted replay in a dire game at Kenilworth Road.

Despite a 65 place gap spread across three divisions, the gulf in class was far less pronounced as the plucky visitors matched the Hatters blow for sporadic blow.

Lawson's side have been in excellent form this campaign having won 15 and drawn two of their 17 league games so far this campaign. Having disposed of Guiseley in the last round, they came with no fear to face a much-changed Hatters.

With eight changes from the 6-1 demolition of Blue Square Bet Premier's bottom side Barrow on Tuesday, only captain Alex Lawless, Lathaniel Rowe-Turner and Arnaud Mendy kept their places.

A scuffed effort from James Dance in the third minute was the only memorable moment of a decidedly ropey first 15 minutes.

With last Saturday's hysterical scenes after victory over Wolves, which ultimately proved the last act of Stale Solbakken's brief and uninspiring tenure, the visitors knew there would be a chance of an upset.

Skem forced the first corner in the 21st minute and it almost heralded perhaps a deserved lead.

Louis Corrigan's corner sneaked through a cluster of bodies and caught Brill off-guard as it hit the stand-in 'keeper's near post.

Chants of "Wembley, Wembley!" emerged from the home fans but the Hatters' were barely showing enough to suggest they could overcome the lively Lancashire outfit.

The home fans' optimism soon recoiled and most would certainly have been begging for the half-time whistle after an unsatisfying stalemate.

The introduction of Andre Gray for the second half was a signal of intent from Buckle, hoping to avoid an extra fixture in the Hatters' cluttered schedule and a lengthy trip to Lancashire for the replay.

However with time ticking past the hour mark and no further sign of impetus, Stuart Fleetwood and Adam Watkins were thrown on to add more tools to a misfiring attack. And it was Fleetwood and Gray that almost combined to put the Hatters in the lead and raise the spirits of the home fans.

Still the on-rushing Gray managed to touch over in the six yard box with the goal at his mercy. With every passing moment, the prospect of a replay loomed large for Buckle's men but it was Watkins that saved the day.

Watkins danced from the right touchline and unleashed a perfect left-foot shot past Ashton to rescue the Hatters.

Skem threatened an equaliser in the dying seconds but a breakaway led to Luton's second as Fleetwood fed Gray who side-footed past the 'keeper to flatten the Hatters but ensure their progression to the last eight of the competition many feel could be a hindrance in the long run.

Millwall in Gray hunt

HATTERS NEWS

MILLWALL manager Kenny Jackett was at Kenilworth Road on Tuesday night running the rule over Andre Gray.

The Lions boss is searching for a striker after being priced out of signing Chris Wood on a permanent deal from West Brom by big-spending Leicester City. Luton have said Gray is not for sale this month but managing director Gary Sweet has said he would "sit down" with the executives of a Championship club if the right offer was tabled.

Gray will only have sparked further interest by scoring in successive games this week. Peterborough are understood to be monitoring his form. They have plucked Freddie Eastwood, Aaron McLean, George Boyd and Michael Bostwick from non-league football in recent seasons and could be looking for a replacement for Boyd who will leave this month or in the summer.

Boucaud leaves club

HATTERS NEWS

ANDRE Boucaud said his goodbyes at the training ground on Thursday before heading to Notts County to complete his move to the Magpies.

The midfielder, 28, left the club's headquarters in Ely Way with a carrier bag of possessions at around 12.45pm after bidding farewell to the club's football staff.

He walked out with Scott Neilson, who joined earlier this month from Crawley Town, shook hands with the winger before driving off in a silver Audi A3.

"Boucaud has left now" Alan Neilson said. "Gary Sweet [the managing director] and the gaffer sorted it all out and I think all parties are happy. We wish him all the best and I'm sure he wishes us the same."

Luton paid York £25,000 for Boucaud last year and although the fee Notts County have paid is undisclosed, the Hatters say they have not recorded a loss on the player.

Jolley joins Newport

HATTERS NEWS

ALAN NEILSON says the Hatters only want to sign players who are "willing to die for the club" in the wake of Luton Town withdrawing from the race to sign Christian Jolley.

Luton had a bid accepted for the striker, who was surplus to requirements at AFC Wimbledon, and held talks with the 24-year-old forward, underlining the expectations and challenges that come with playing for the former league club. But the club were disappointed by the protracted nature of the deal and pulled out last week.

Jolley joined Newport County on Friday after spending December there on loan.

"We want players who want to die for this club, who give 100 per cent on the pitch and on the training field," Neilson, the Luton coach, said.

"If there is any doubt, then that [pulling out of the deal] shows what happens."

Dance move away from Luton is on the cards

JAMES DANCE is on the verge of joining a Conference club on loan.

Paul Buckle has received plenty of interest in the 25-year-old and was close to allowing him to leave at the end of last year but changed his mind at the 11th hour.

But the arrival of Scott Neilson has knocked Dance further down the pecking order and he is now likely to be allowed to leave to gain some match practice.

"I don't want to disclose who it is until it happens, but I'm hopeful James will go out on loan on Monday," Buckle said.

Dance played the first half of yesterday's FA Trophy tie in what was only his third appearance for the first time in a year. He has been dogged by an ankle problem that once put his career in jeopardy.

Meanwhile, Dean Beckwith has joined Eastleigh after having his contract at Kenilworth Road cancelled.

The defender made his debut for Eastleigh on Wednesday, scoring in the 5-0 win over Billericay Town on Tuesday.

"Dean leaves the club with the best wishes from everyone at Kenilworth Road," read a club statement.

Eastleigh manager Richard Hill said he had been pursuing Beckwith, who played 21 times for the Hatters, for around two months.

Watkins is making his boss proud

BY TOM SHARP

sport@lutonmedia.co.uk

LUTON manager Paul Buckle hailed young midfielder Adam Watkins as his opener helped the Hatters' to an eventual 2-0 win over plucky Evo-Stik Northern Division One North side Skelmersdale United.

The midfielder, who spent time on loan at Blue Square Bet Premier promotion rivals Kidderminster Harriers earlier in the season, entered the fray in the 68th minute and soon made his presence felt as he slammed home after a classy run in the 84th minute.

Watkins made a mere handful of appearances for Harriers during his loan spell, much to the Luton boss' disappointment, but according to Buckle, the 21-year-old has returned with a new attitude and is ready to impress.

"I have been waiting for Watto [Watkins] to come back here and certainly Friday he knocked on the door and said he was ready to get his head down," said Buckle. "He has come back to concentrate on his football and listen to the coaching staff and me as we are the ones qualified to take the club forward at this moment. "He showed unbelievable honesty in the office on Friday though and I am so proud of him."

Buckle says he received an email from Spartan South Midlands Premier Division outfit Dunstable Town regarding the availability of the midfielder but he is not prepared to negotiate. "All due respect to Dunstable Town but he does not need any more speculation right now," said Buckle.

"Sometimes a young player can get lost and be put under too much pressure from outside. Hopefully we can see more from Adam as he starts to concentrate more on his football."

Norwich tie excites coach

FOOTBALL

BY KEVIN AFFLECK

kevin.affleck@lutonmedia.co.uk

LUTON coach Alan Neilson says there will be no divided loyalty in his family when the Hatters meet Norwich City in the FA Cup.

Half of his family are from Suffolk but Paul Buckle's number two says they will be rooting for the Conference club in the fourth-round tie at Carrow Road on January 26.

"All my mum's family are from Norwich, all my cousins live there," said Neilson who is likely to be besieged with ticket requests. "Lots of them will be getting them from the Norwich end but they will be shouting for Luton."

Luton thrived as the underdogs against Wolves and Neilson knows Luton are again second favourites against Premier League opposition in the next round, but that suits the Hatters down to the ground, according to the coach.

"It's great for the lads," Neilson said. "We are the underdogs and normally always under pressure to win the game. We'll go there and hopefully get the same result [as we did against Wolves]."

"The pitch will be super and it will be a great experience for the lads. We'll go out there and try and win the game."

Luton's win over Wolves is Neilson's FA Cup highlight, eclipsing the 3-0 win for Southampton over Portsmouth in 1996.
